

REMARKS/ARGUMENT

While making a final review of the claims in preparation for payment of the Issue Fee, errors were discovered in dependent claims 85, 87-89, 91, 93, 95-96, and 123. These included minor typographical errors, and inconsistencies in wording and overlap between the dependent claims and their respective parent claims.

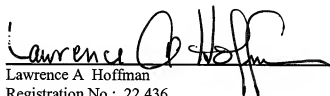

It is respectfully requested that applicants be permitted to correct these errors by the changes proposed herein. The scope of the protection being sought is not being broadened as only dependent claims are to be amended, and no new matter is being introduced.

In view of the foregoing, favorable consideration and entry of these amendments are earnestly solicited.

Respectfully submitted,
